

LF35_0026 – Online Questions

1. How'd you get into the photography business?
2. Has there been a moment when you asked yourself if you'd made a mistake becoming a photographer?
3. What's been the single most important moment of your photographic career?
4. How about the most unexpected result of becoming a photographer?
5. You work in several different areas of photography – which is your favorite and why?
6. What's the key to photographic success? Personality, marketing, the images?
7. In the 25 years you've been in the business, what has been the most dramatic change in it? And, you CAN'T say the technology – that's too obvious!
8. Have you adjusted your marketing process to deal with the changes in the economy and the stock market? If so, how and if not, why not?
9. What's been the most interesting aspect of being a Canon Explorer of Light?
10. Have you had a chance to use the 1D Mark IV yet? If so (or not) what are your thoughts about it?
11. How do you intend to use its new capabilities – the higher ISO, etc.?
12. What about the video capability in the new cameras – do you see that playing a prominent role in your work moving forward?
13. Is there any place left that has NOT been discovered by mass numbers of photographers?
14. Where's your favorite location to shoot? And you CAN'T say “Where I am at this very moment!”
15. Any place you haven't been to that you're dying to travel to?
16. What's your favorite equipment to shoot with (specifics)?
17. How about software – your favorite plug-in (and why)?

18. You've become well known for your butterfly images – how did you get started down that path?
19. Are you doing anything special to get those beautiful images of them?
20. How about three top tips photographers could use to capture great butterfly images themselves?
21. Outside of photography, what are you passionate about?
22. What do you see as the future of photography? Where do you think the craft is headed?
23. You do a lot of workshops and tours, what's up next for you in that area? (dates after the show airs – approximately Nov 17th)
24. What's the future hold for you? Are you going to stay on the current path, or head in some new direction?