

LF35_0035 – Online Questions

1. So, how long have you been a photographer?
2. Why did you become one and how did you end up being focused on nature and travel photography?
3. What's the difference in being a female photographer versus a male? Are there pluses and minuses?
4. How about the differences between travel and nature photography. Are there lessons learned in one that apply to the other?
5. What steps do you take on the business side of things to stand out from the pack of other photographers?
6. What do you do to make your WORK stand out from those other photographers?
7. You've been featured in a lot of magazines and articles lately. How did that happen and how has it affected your business?
8. Do you think that a photographer needs writing skills to help differentiate themselves from all the others these days?
9. You have written and taken photographs for your own book project. Tell me about that...
10. Is a book project of their own work something that every photographer should attempt? (why/why not)
11. What challenges or hurdles are they going to face? How do eBooks fit into the mix?
12. What's the market like for printed landscape, nature and travel images?
13. Is there a tactic you're using to adjust to the new market realities?
14. What recommendations would you give other photographers to help them become successful? (non-technical)
15. Are there some technical tips you can hand out to take better landscape, nature or travel images? Your favorite ones...
16. What about your favorite piece of gear – it can be anything, so what is it?

17. What else is in your camera bag that might be interesting or unique?
18. What about the strangest place you've ever had to photograph. Where has that been?
19. What about some place that you've never been to. Where is that and why?
20. What's the image you're most proud of and why?
21. It seems like every photographer is doing workshops these days, so I've got to ask about yours. How long have you been doing them and why?
22. Which ones have you got coming up? (show date is 1/26/2010)
23. What have I left out Brenda? Which secret have we failed to reveal during this interview?