

LF35_0062 – Online Questions

1. Well, it's Carl E. Heilman the second. Did the first have anything to do with your interest in photography?
2. How long have you been a landscape photographer?
3. Why such a focus on the Adirondacks?
4. What's your favorite location to shoot up here?
5. What has been your "best photographic moment" to date?
6. How do you keep your work fresh and interesting?
7. Is there a new trend in landscape photography? Either a means of presentation, technique, or style type trend?
8. Is there even a market for landscape work anymore? What has changed over the years and what have you done to deal with those changes?
9. Are there three 'top tips' you think landscape photographers need to know in order to get great shots?
10. From your perspective, what constitutes the perfect Carl Heilman image?
11. How do you get 'perfect' images every time with a DSLR?
12. You have some unique HDR techniques – explain them a bit.
13. What about having the moon in your landscape images? Anything special you have to think about?
14. You're big on panoramas. Why?
15. Do you see room for video in the landscape market?
16. Are you working on any new projects?